

Icon	Word	Definition/In a Sentence
	Didactic	Didactic is something that intends to teach us.
	Odyssey	An odyssey is a long and eventful or adventurous journey
	Myths	Myths are old stories about heroes and Gods that are passed on orally.
	Monologue	A Monologue is a long speech told by one person.
	Context	Context is the setting within which a work of writing is situated.
	Consciousness	Consciousness is an awareness of your own thoughts and feelings.
	Romanticism	Romanticism was a literary movement made up of writers who liked to write about nature.
	Modernism	Modernism was a literary movement made up of writers who liked to break the rules and write about the inner thoughts and feelings of characters.
	Epic poem	Epic poem is a long narrative poem that tells of an adventure.
	The canon	The canon measures the value of world's literature.
	Morality	Morality is concerned with what is right and wrong in human behaviour.
	Prologue	A prologue is an introduction to a text.
	Perspective	Perspective is a particular point of view or opinion.
	Diverse	Diverse means showing a great deal of variety.
	Influential	Influential describes something that has a great impact on someone.